HAPPY NEW Year

It's a New Year!

Our church fiscal year 2022-23 starts on August 1. Please always write the pledge year in the memo line of your check. It's a confusing time of year for our Assistant Treasurers to keep track of your pledge payments, because some people are finishing up their 2021-22 pledge, while others are starting to pay their 2022-23 pledge. Thank you for your generosity!

April & May Community Plate Offerings

Helping live out all 7 UU Principles through donations

Because we are a hybrid church, our Community Plate collections trickle in over the course of a few weeks so we can't announce them weekly as we did pre-pandemic. We have people donating cash in-person, people donating via Breeze online, and people mailing in checks. This listing will allow you to see what the final amount was that we sent to the many worthy organizations that you as a caring congregation helped to support.

Thank you for your generosity.

Have You Remembered Your Church in Your Will or Estate Plan?

By leaving a legacy gift to our church, you will ensure that it remains a vital force for good in the world and preservation of the values you hold dear – and a constant source of spiritual growth and support.

A bequest to benefit the Unitarian Universalist Church of Concord can be arranged with a simple codicil, i.e., an addendum to your will or trust, or by designating the Church as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or an IRA, 401(k) or other qualified retirement plan.

Your legacy gift may be made in memory or in honor of a cherished family member or revered friend.

If you would like further information or guidance, our Legacy Committee members would be happy to talk with you privately. Feel free to contact David Canfield or Jack Wakelin anytime.

Fall 2022 6-week series: Introduction to Mindfulness and Concord UU Contemplative Practice Activities

Have you been waiting for an opportunity to explore mindfulness practice, or to enliven and nurture an existing meditation practice? If so, please join us this Fall for a 6-week series introducing Mindfulness at Concord UU. You'll receive instruction in a variety of practices, and at the same time you'll get to know, learn from and practice with the people who are bringing contemplative practices to life within our congregation.

This 6 week series will be offered after services (11:30 AM to 12:30 PM) beginning Sunday, October 9 and will run every Sunday through November 13. All sessions will be in person (in the Chapel) and also online via Zoom. Participation in all 6 sessions is encouraged, but not required.

Each week we'll focus on a different aspect of mindfulness practice, exploring sitting meditation, moving meditation, informal daily-life practices and more. The series will be facilitated by Jeanne Ann Whittington, with guest presenters representing the various regular groups that are active within our church community. By the end of the series you will not only have a broad introduction to mindfulness practice, but you'll also be familiar with the full spectrum of Contemplative Practice Group offerings.

More information will be forthcoming in the September Parish Notes, but if the idea of a Fall immersion in mindfulness speaks to you, please mark your calendar now and plan to join us. The practices are transformative, and there is great joy and sustenance in supporting one other in our spiritual journeys.

SAVE THE DATE! for the Fall 2022

Mindfulness Meditation Retreat
--with guest teacher Rae Houseman

The Art of Non-Doing: Remembering Emptiness

Saturday, September 10th 9-4

In-Person at Concord UU Church & Zoom

Suggested Registration Fee: $25 | Register by Clicking Here

Our culture places much value on “doing.” Consequently, we often identify with what we’ve achieved or obtained from our doing. The cultural emphasis on doing creates unconscious compulsive tendencies to “do,” even in our meditation practice. We can orient ourselves to the practice as if we are doing meditation. In this retreat, we will take time to observe our habitual tendencies toward doing and practice relaxing from them. When we stop doing, we allow our mind to rest in its natural state, a state of awareness. When awareness is present, wisdom is cultivated naturally, without having to do anything to manifest it. Wisdom allows us to see reality more clearly and remember its true nature: emptiness.

Emptiness points to an understanding of ultimate reality that recognizes that nothing is intrinsically good or bad. We can experience moments when the mind is not identified with its own ideas about something being good or bad, it’s not identified with thought, it’s not identified with its own mental activity. We will practice inviting the mind into states of non-identification: remembering emptiness.

Rae Houseman is a meditation teacher, mindfulness mentor, and trauma therapist. She brings a kind and earnest sense of inquiry into her engagement with the practice and is passionate about integrating mindfulness into daily life activities in support of a more embodied approach to the practice. Rae has practiced extensively in both the Insight Meditation tradition and the Vajrayana tradition and finds the interweaving of these two approaches to be complementary of a deeply compassionate and discerning practice. She was formerly the Head of Coaching and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Manager at Ten Percent Happier. She holds a Masters degree in Somatic Psychology and is a certified Somatic Experiencing Practitioner. She loves discussing the practice and meditating with others.

Summer Contemplative Offerings

Insight Meditation Sangha

Third Friday | Zoom but sometimes hybrid | 4 – 6 pm

Rae Houseman has practiced extensively in both the Insight Meditation tradition and the Vajrayana tradition, and has found these two styles of practice to be complementary in the development of a deeply intuitive and embodied practice. Rae is a graduate of the Spirit Rock Community Dharma Leadership program and Anam Thubten Rinpoche's Dharma Leadership Program.

Rae holds a Masters degree in Somatic Psychology and is a certified Somatic Experiencing Practitioner. Rae was involved with the creation of the Ten Percent Happier app, and absolutely loves discussing the practice and sharing practice space with others.

The sangha includes guidance that leads into meditation, a meditation period, and then a discussion that is generally a reflection on the sitting practice. The group is appropriate for beginning and experienced meditators alike. The Insight Sangha is now officially affiliated with the UU Church. Everyone is welcome! Please contact Doris at dandmhamp38@gmail.com with any questions and to receive the Zoom link.

Daily Silent Morning Sit

Daily Sunday-Saturday | 7-7:30 am | Zoom

For support in your daily contemplative practice, and to support others with your presence, this silent daily Zoom gathering happens from 7 to 7:30 AM every day, 7 days a week. You can join for the full 30 minute period, or drop in for as long as you are able. A leader will ring a bell at the beginning and end; otherwise the time is in silence except for the last Friday of each month, during which there will be a brief sit and then an open check in.

To participate, contact Heidi Page at heidi@concorduu.org for the Zoom link and a brief written orientation. If you have questions that you'd like to discuss before dropping in online, contact Margaret Fletcher at margaret.wellaware@gmail.com.

FaceBook UU Women's Right Action Group

Let us gather in support and in action!

We are a dynamic FaceBook (FB) group of Unitarian Universalists gathered together to apply our UU principles in support of women and women's issues. We provide an opportunity for UUs to connect with other UUs nationwide who are actively supporting women's rights.

Please feel free to share your own or your congregation's actions both locally and nationally in support of Women's Rights -- especially photos of UUs in action! We encourage an open exchange of ideas and respectful dialogue. We strive to build community and covenant together. This group may also be used to post time-sensitive action alerts regarding bills/laws impacting women's rights requiring a rapid response.

As it is a private group, people can only be added by another already in the group. If you would like to be added, let us know and send us your email address and we will send you an invite. Once in the group you can add any of your UU friends who you know would be interested. If you are not interested but think you know someone who might be, just have them send us their email address at: kbbingo@hotmail.com and I will send them an invite.

In 2017 I started a Women's Rights Action Group at my congregation. Check out the link to see what we've been up to: <https://tapestryuu.org/get-involved-2/social-action/womens-rights-action-group/>

Apart-Together An Upcycling Project

We were apart and are now coming together in ways old and new.
 We gather(ed) apart-together via live-streaming and on Zoom.
 Let's mark this hopeful moment in our journey by taking our old cloth mask apart and putting the pieces together to create something both old and new.

Please DONATE your USED CLOTH MASKS, instead of tossing them.
 When you are ready to part with them, please drop them into one of the collection boxes.

What will we make with our old masks? That depends on the masks you donate. A great many things can be created from a jumble of masks, fabric scraps and straps. The list of possibilities is so long that its sensible to choose projects after we have a better idea of the masks we'll have to work with.

As we watch our collection grow we'll be whittling down that list but will hear more before any of the making begins. In the meantime, you are invited to share your ideas, interest or concerns with Judy Maloney, nowtodayhere@gmail.com. She'll be happy to have received them.

*Wouldn't it be wonderful if our creation(s) became part of an annual day of Reflection and Celebration?
 Unfortunately, at this moment, such a day is a 'yet to be organized' event.*

Let the collecting begin.

Thank you for taking the time
